CREATIVE EXPRESSION

Dear Educator,

Thank you for visiting the C.S. Lewis Foundation website. We appreciate your efforts to introduce C.S. Lewis and the Chronicles of Narnia to your students and friends.

We have sought to provide you with educationally challenging and easily reproducible book-based activity sheets geared toward students in grades 5-8. The simple format of four black and white pages for each chapter can be economically copied as two double sided sheets, hole-punched, and collected in a notebook. An optional vocabulary quiz sheet can be used for further challenge and/or assessment. The range of activities meets several of the current state standards for education. Students may work individually or in small groups, as suits the situation.

These materials have been designed specifically with the public school or mainstream educational setting in mind, primarily for use by students in the middle grades (5th – 8th).

This Study Guide to The Lion, the Witch, and the Wardrobe was developed under the auspices of the C.S. Lewis Foundation by Rebekah Choat (home educator for seventeen years). We thank her for her amazing generosity, dedication, and talent in creating this guide. Final edits of these materials were subsequently made by Mary Pomroy Key, Ph.D, Counseling Psychology, University of Southern California, Marriage and Family Therapist, adjunct professor of Children's Literature and Child Development, and home educator for thirteen years. We also thank Emily Key, age 10, who tested the guide and provided invaluable feedback.

Please feel free to browse through other resources listed on our website, cslewis.org, including study guides for books by C.S. Lewis, Lewis' biographical information, the "bookstore" and a sampling of some of the seminars and opportunities available for educators.
