

Summer 2 – Writing – Week 2

Lesson 2

Task:

Write your OWN setting!

The following slides will help you.....

Summer 2 – Week 2

LESSON 2

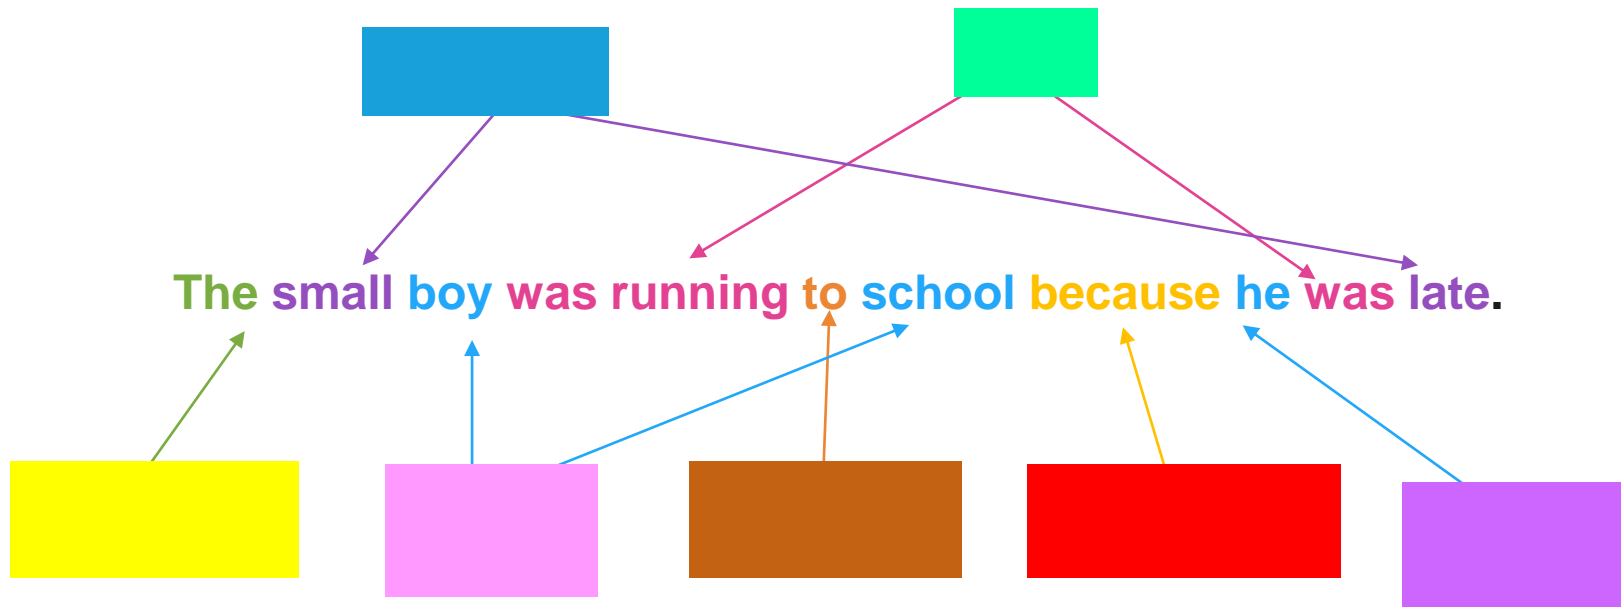

LO: To use specific language to develop settings.

Curriculum coverage to be addressed: identify and replicate how authors have developed characters and settings

Identifying the Parts of a Sentence

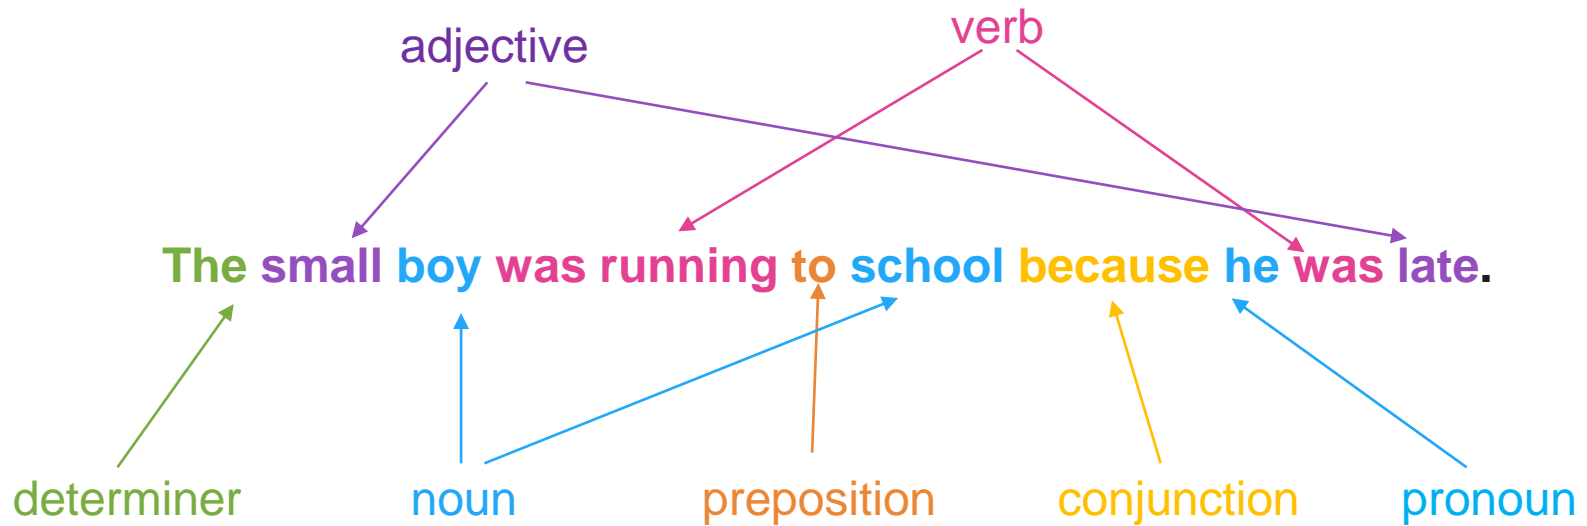

Can you identify the different parts of this sentence?

Which part of the sentence tells us its tense?

Identifying the Parts of a Sentence

Can you identify the different parts of this sentence?

Which part of the sentence tells us its tense?

The verbs

What Are Simple Past and Simple Present Tenses?

How could you write definitions for the 'simple past' and 'simple present' tenses?

Do you and your partner agree?

What Are Simple Past and Simple Present Tenses?

How could you write definitions for the 'simple past' and 'simple present' tenses?

Simple Past

(Simple past is also known as past simple and describes events which happened at a specific time, but are now completed.)

Simple Present

(Simple present is also known as present simple and describes events which happen often.)

Do you and your partner agree?

Simple Past or Simple Present?

Now copy these sentences into the correct places in the table below.

I bake cakes.

She read a book.

We played football.

Our teacher helps us.

Agnes swims for a club.

Jim ate his lunch.

Simple Past or Simple Present?

Now copy these sentences into the correct places in the table below.

I bake cakes.

She read a book.

We played football.

Our teacher helps us.

Agnes swims for a club.

Jim ate his lunch.

Simple Past	Simple Present
She read a book.	I bake cakes.
Jim ate his lunch.	Our teacher helps us.
We played football.	Agnes swims for a club.

What Is the Present Perfect Tense?

How could you write a definition for 'Present Perfect' tense?

Do you agree?

What Is the Present Perfect Tense?

What do you notice about these present perfect sentences?

I have baked a cake.

My mum has tidied my room.

Our dog has ruined the vegetable garden.

We have eaten all the sweets.

What Is the Present Perfect Tense?

What do you notice about these present perfect sentences?

I have baked a cake.

My mum has tidied my room.

Our dog has ruined the vegetable garden.

We have eaten all the sweets.

They all include a verb phrase, with the auxiliary verb 'to have' and the past tense of the main verb.

Simple Past or Present Perfect?

Now sort these sentences into the correct places in the table below.

I read a great book.

Laura has read a book about archaeology.

I ate everything.

Jamal has eaten his lunch.

I have walked a long way.

Sue ran a long way.

Simple Past	Present Perfect
I read a great book.	Laura has read a book about archaeology.
I ate everything.	Jamal has eaten his lunch.
Sue ran a long way.	I have walked a long way.

Your Turn: Present Perfect

Can you write descriptions of these photos in the present perfect tense?

Look, I have constructed a brilliant fortress.

William has baked a lot of cakes this morning.

What Are the Past Progressive and Present Progressive Tenses?

Can you write definitions for the 'past progressive' and 'present progressive' tenses?

Past Progressive

(Past progressive is also known as past continuous and describes events which happened in the past, over a period of time.

They use a past tense auxiliary verb plus the present tense form of the main verb.)

Present Progressive

(Present progressive is also known as present continuous and describes events which are happening right now and haven't finished yet.

They use a present tense auxiliary verb plus the present tense form of the main verb.)

Do you and your partner agree?

Past Progressive or Present Progressive?

Sort these sentences into the correct place in the table.

I am listening carefully to my teacher.

Freddie is talking at the back of the room.

We were learning about the Roman Empire.

During the lesson, Mabel was whispering to me.

At break time we were playing tag.

I am reading a book about gladiators

Past Progressive	Present Progressive
We were learning about the Roman Empire.	I am listening carefully to my teacher.
During the lesson, Mabel was whispering to me.	Freddie is talking at the back of the room.
At break time we were playing tag.	I am reading a book about gladiators.

Past Progressive or Present Progressive?

Choose a square to reveal a picture. Write a sentence about the picture. Spin the wheel to decide whether you need to write your sentence in the past progressive or present progressive tense:

Spin

Your Turn: Past Progressive

Can you write descriptions of these photos in the past progressive tense?

As the sun set, the family was enjoying a walk together.

The mother tiger was teaching her cub how to find food during the harsh winter.

Your Turn: Present Progressive

Can you write descriptions of these photos in the present progressive tense?

My little brother, Zach, is playing in the sand.

I am making giant bubbles!

Quick Quiz 1

Identify the verbs in these sentences.

Adil cycled to school this morning.

We were asked to read three chapters of our book last night.

Mr Jones has taught our class about Ancient Egypt.

It was raining all weekend.

Can you identify the tense that each sentence has been written in?

Quick Quiz 2

Identify the tense of the following sentences.

I have eaten all of my ice cream.

present
perfect

I love ice cream so much!

simple present

Amir dropped his ice cream.

simple past

Rachel is eating her ice cream slowly.

present progressive

Task: The Opening

- Start your opening by explaining how long ago it happened. (one sentence)
- Where is the scene taking place?
- Introduce your hero – tell us the name and a little bit about their life. (two sentences)
- Describe their heroic looks.

APPLY DASH

DASH ?

5
senses

Weather

Similes

Time, Place and Mood

Adjectives