The Scene

Scotland in the eleventh century.

When shall we three meet again?

In thunder, lightning, or in rain?

When the hurly-burly's done,

When the battle's lost and won.

First and Second Witches; I.i.

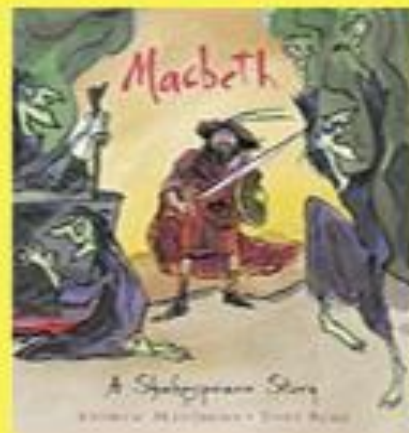

Task 1:

1. The wickedness in the play does not come from the witches, but from inside Macbeth. Do you agree? Disagree? Use evidence from the story to support your ideas.

Task 1:

To what extent is Lady Macbeth to blame for the terrible events in the story?

How does Lady Macbeth change over the course of the play? Use evidence and examples to support your answer.

Task 2:

Summarise:

Order these events from the story from 1-8. One has been done for you!

	Meanwhile, Lady Macbeth goes mad and begins sleep walking. Eventually she dies.
	Macbeth send a letter to his wife telling her of the prophecy and she puts pressure on him to murder King Duncan.
	Macbeth returns to the witches who tell him, "No man born of a woman can harm you!" and that he is safe until Birnam Wood 'walks' to his castle.
	Macbeth murders the king and Lady Macbeth smears blood over the guards' faces to make them look guilty. Suspicion also falls on the king's sons, Malcolm and Donalbain, and they flee the country.
	Malcolm and Macduff raise an army to defeat Macbeth and march into Scotland.
	Macbeth hires two murderers who kill Banquo. Banquo's son escapes. Later Macbeth sees Banquo's ghost.
1	On the way back from battle, Macbeth meets three witches who prophesise that he will be king and that Banquo's son will be king afterwards.
	The soldiers hide behind branches cut from Birnam Wood and approach the castle. Macbeth learns that Macduff's mother died in child birth and that the witches have deceived him. Macduff finally kills Macbeth and is crowned king.
